Key Medicare and Medicaid Provisions – See Division FF, beginning on page 2991

Medicare provisions – Title IV

- Sec. 4101 - Extends the Medicare low-volume hospital payment adjustment for two years through September 30, 2024.
- Sec. 4102 - Extends the Medicare-Dependent Hospital (MDH) program for two years through September 30, 2024.
- Sec. 4103 - Extends some add-on payments for ground ambulance services under the Medicare fee schedule through December 31, 2024.
- Sec. 4111 - Extends incentive payments for participation in advanced alternative payment models (APMs) through 2025, with a 3.5 percent Medicare Part B incentive payment for services covered in 2025.
- Sec. 4112 – For 2023, increases otherwise applicable Medicare Physician Fee Schedule payments by 2.5 percent; this means physicians will receive a 2% cut instead of the 4.5% cut in 2023. For 2024, the bill provides a 1.25 percent payment increase; this means physicians will receive a 1.25 percent bump up from whatever amount CMS sets in the 2024 physician fee schedule rule.

- Sec. 4113 - Extends all Medicare telehealth flexibilities that were extended in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2022, through December 31, 2024.
- Sec. 4114 - Eelays by one year pending payment reductions and data reporting periods for the Clinical Laboratory Fee Schedule under the Protecting Access to Medicare Act.
- Sec. 4140 – Extends Acute Hospital Care at Home Waivers through December 31, 2024
- Sec. 4143 - Waives cap on annual payments for certain nursing schools, p. 3803

Medicaid provisions – Title V

- Sec. 5131 – Transitioning from Medicaid FMAP Increase Requirements

The bill also includes numerous Mental Health provisions in Title I, beginning on page 3001.
